JEWISH STUDIES CORE

Students must take at least one course in Hebrew, and up to three, depending on Hebrew placement. In they are placed in HEB 1010, they must then take HEB 1020 and HEB 1030; if they are placed in HEB 1020, they must then take HEB 1030. Students who are placed out of the highest level of Hebrew (1030) must take an advanced Hebrew course (1040 or equivalent).

All students should take Hebrew language in their first year on campus.

Beyond Hebrew language, 12 credits are required, taken in any area of Jewish Studies (Bible, Jewish History, Jewish Philosophy, [academic] Talmud, Hebrew literature, etc.), but among these courses, students must take:

- (a) one course in Jewish History;
- (b) one course in Jewish Thought and Philosophy;
- (c) one course in Bible.

Students in the Yeshiva Program/Mazer School of Talmudic Studies and the Irving I. Stone Beit Midrash Program take these courses at Yeshiva College. Students in Isaac Breuer College of Hebraic Studies and James Striar School of General Jewish Studies may satisfy these requirements with courses at those schools. Students who change from one morning Torah studies program to another during their time at Yeshiva College must consult an Academic Advisor regarding the fulfillment of these Jewish studies requirements.
